FOUR DEAD IN A TEXAS RACE RIOT

(By Associated Press.)
DALLAS, Tex., July 11.—Four white men were wounded by negroes when they fired upon a group of negroes in the negro section. The whites had gone to search for a negro school teacher accused of causing the publication in a negro newspaper of a statement derogatory to a young woman. The whites were fired upon until their ammunition was exhausted. It is estimated that more than fifty negroes participated in the attack. There is no indication of their casualties. The whites burned five negro residences. The authorities expect no further difficulties.
